- While bullying involves a repetition of unwelcome behaviour the Anti-Bullying Procedures for Primary and Post Primary Schools, September 2013, states:

2.1.3. In addition, in the context of these procedures placing a once-off offensive or hurtful public message, image or statement on a social network site or other public forum where that message, image or statement can be viewed and/or repeated by other people will be regarded as bullying behaviour.

What is Cyber-Bullying

There are many types of cyber-bullying. The more common types are:

Advice for Parents

If you are being bullied by phone or on the Internet:

- Remember, bullying is never your fault. It can be stopped and it can usually be traced.
- Contact the appropriate authorities; Gardaí, Túsla, HSE.
- Don't ignore the bullying. Tell someone you trust, such as a teacher or parent or call an advice line.
- Try to keep calm. If you are frightened, try to show it as little as possible. Don't get angry, it will only make the person bullying you more likely to continue.
- Don't give out your personal details online – if you are in a chat room, do not say where you live, the school you go to, your email address etc. All these things can help someone who wants to harm you to build up a picture about you.
- Keep and save any bullying emails, text messages or images. Then you can show them to a parent or teacher as evidence.
- If you can, make a note of the time and date bullying messages or images were sent, and note any details about the sender
- There is plenty of online advice on how to react to cyber bullying. For example, www.websire.ie www.immunisenet.ie and www.wiredsafety.org have some useful tips.

Text/video messaging

- You can easily stop receiving text messages for a while by turning-off incoming messages for a couple of days. This might stop the person texting you by making them believe you've changed your phone number
- If the bullying persists, you can change your phone number. Ask your mobile service provider about this.
- Don't reply to abusive or worrying text or video messages.
- Your mobile service provider will have a number for you to ring or text to report phone bullying. Visit their website for details.
- Don't delete messages from cyber bullies. You don't have to read them, but you should keep them as evidence.

Anti-Cyber Bullying Procedures:

If an issue arises during school time, then the matter is dealt with in accordance with the Scoil Bhríde Code of Conduct, Scoil Bhríde Anti-Bullying Procedures and the Scoil Bhríde Parental Complaints Procedure.

If an issue arises outside of school time and a report is made to a member of staff/Principal:

- 1) Staff must make the complainant aware that it is a Child Protection issue which must be referred to either Túsla or Gardaí.
- 2) Scoil Bhríde Midleton must be supplied with physical evidence of bullying (eg screen shot etc). This evidence can then be passed on to the parents/guardians of the alleged bully.
- 3) A full declaration must be made under the terms of the Scoil Bhríde Midleton Child Protection Policy to the appropriate agency.
- 4) Follow up restorative steps may be undertaken in school if necessary.
- 5) Records of all the above actions must be kept and a full report must be made to the BOM of Scoil Bhríde.
